

Admission of International Master Program In Global Finance

● Introduction

The full name of this master's degree program is International Master Program in Global Finance (IMF), which mainly focuses on the practical application of financial/accounting/economics theories in global financial markets, and cultivates advanced financial professionals. This course is jointly taught by 20 excellent teachers who have studied abroad with doctoral degrees from across departments of the School of Management and have both financial practice background and theoretical expertise.

● Curriculum planning

The course will be taught entirely in English, it connects interdisciplinary academics and industry in finance, accounting and economics. This course recruits international students every year, which can expand students' international reach and enhance their future competitiveness in the international financial market.

● Future map

In order to improve students' communication skills in the international financial market, summer internships provided in cooperation with the four major domestic accounting firms and several domestic financial institutions and government financial inspection units can also provide students with opportunities to verify theory and practice. It mainly focuses on the practical application of financial/accounting/economics theories in global financial markets, and trains high-level financial professional managers.
